

London Dressage Association

2012 Membership Information

The London Dressage Association (LDA) is a chapter of the Canadian Dressage Owners and Riders Association (CADORA) and member of the provincial chapter, CADORA-Ontario. The objectives of the LDA are: To foster and encourage interest and participation in dressage riding and the ownership of dressage horses; to foster an interest among horsemen of various disciplines and the general public in the utility and beauty of dressage...; to encourage instruction, demonstrations, shows and competitions involving dressage riding.

For information on CADORA and CADORA-Ontario please visit www.cadora.ca and www.cadora.ca/Cadora-Ontario, respectively.

There are two types of membership: An LDA-only membership for those who already have a CADORA membership or wish not to join CADORA, and a full LDA - CADORA membership, which allows you “one stop shopping” if you wish to join both organizations. (Note that you can join CADORA independently via their website as well.)

All LDA memberships include the LDA newsletter, Club rates at LDA competitions (the non-member fee will be $15 per entry this year) and LDA clinics, and first consideration on entry to all club activities. In addition, the following benefits and restrictions apply:

LDA and CADORA MEMBERSHIP (senior or junior) - Members will

1. Have a say in all LDA activities.
2. Be able to serve on the LDA executive.
3. Be members of the national and provincial organizations (CADORA and CADORA-Ontario) and receive the benefits of these memberships. (See the Cadora website @ www.cadora.ca.)
4. Receive the CADORA INK newsletter, the Directory and Test Booklet directly from CADORA National. Please direct inquiries to CADORA.
5. Be eligible for LDA Club Awards.
6. Be eligible for CADORA and CADORA-Ontario Awards and programs.
7. Junior members must be 17 years or younger as of January 1 of the membership year.

LDA-only MEMBERSHIP (senior or junior) -- Members will

1. Have a say in all LDA activities.
2. Be able to serve on the LDA executive (except as Chairperson or Area Representative).
3. Be eligible for LDA Club Awards.
4. Junior members must be 17 years or younger as of January 1 of the membership year.
